Control Offices No. 3 Nessan-st. and No. 57 3d-ac. The whole of this beautiful village, embracing nearly seven hundred iots (except one hundred aircaly sold) is offered for sale at prices from $60 to $150 cach. This place is situated on the Brooklyn and Janaica Plank Road, with the Long Island Raitroad passing through the center, and is about 41 miles from Willianaburgh and 7 from Brooklyn. For convenience of access it is surpassed by no village in the vicinity of New-York, having frequent communications by stages on the Plana Road, and five times each way, daily, by the Raitroad. It is finery occated in the center of a lovely plane, and is free alther from swamps and rough or ountain land. The village is laid out in broad and convenient avenues, the center one, Greenwood-ev, being 100 feet in width. The title of the property is perfect, having been in one family nearly 200 years. A complete abstract will be farmshed to purchasers. A together, to those who would escape high city rente, and desirous of a conference building spot, this is the last opportunity yet offered to the public. All the streets will be graded at the expense of the present proprictors. For maps or further particulars, apply to the call Agent, No. 3 Nassau-st., from 11 A. M. to 2 P. M.;

"He who loves not his country can love nothing." of Mrs. Hale's genius are pre-eminently displayed, has great claims on the attention of the public, aside from the intense interest which the parrative excites, and the fescinating tional and vivid picture of society at the North and South, and holds up, in bright relief to the dark back-ground of faraticism, those eternal elements of Love and Truth which should ever prevail between the two great sections of our country, in order that both may be bound together in one firm and indiscoluble Union. Northwood is, in fact, a captivating teacher of patriotism from North to South, exhibit bilities, and breathing the true spirit which should animate H. LONG & BROTHER, No. 43 Ann-st., New-York.

GENTLEMAN JACK, Or, LIFE ON THE ROAD, a Romance of extraordinary interest, breathing the very spirit of Adventure, by the author of Pani Chirother Price abecute.

Gentlemen Jack, under other circumstances and a different councilion, would have been a man of mark in any age; for he had every attribute which is essential to the formation of a bree. He was quick in resolve, during in execution, of invincible courage, at directless of a lift, and his physical constitution was worthy of his menta, being a man of powerful traine, imments atrength, and tremendous indirance. The iredonts and adventure which are narrated in this work are unany of them matter of history, and marvellous as they appear to the modern reader, are nevertheless to be viewed as the natural off-shoots of a state society which was constructed on a faise basis, and maintained by injustice and oppareson—when courts of law were but hotheds of bribary, and ermined judgesthe greedy recipients of the fruit; when man hunded man with the tenacity of the bio-diment, abovered on in the pursuit by the hope of that ever-to-box excented recompense, so appropriately expressed by the term "Blood Money!"
